Re: Church of Scientology, et al. v. Armstrong;
Marin County Superior Court Case No. 021632
Our File No. SC102-028

Dear Judge Smith:

This firm represents Plaintiff in connection with the referenced case. Based on the telephone conversation I had with your reporter, Delores, I write to inform you that pursuant to the Hague Convention Service of Process, we have forwarded the summons, complaint and related papers to the British Columbia commission for service of process in connection with Defendant Gerald Armstrong. They informed us that service would be sent out and completed in approximately 45 to 60 days. Therefore, we request a continuance of the hearing regarding the proof of service on Gerald Armstrong to September 10, 2002 at 9:00 a.m.

APM, Jr vs 7/10

In addition, we requested the Court continue the hearing on failure to file Answer for Defendants Minton and Lisa McPherson Trust from July 11, 2002 to July 25, 2002. Defendant Minton has retained Cooley Godward as local counsel and this Court has ordered their response due by July 24, 2002. However, we have received messages from Defendant Lisa McPherson Trust's Florida attorney that he will also hire Cooley Godward to represent the McPherson Trust. Nevertheless, to date, the Lisa McPherson Trust has not contacted this firm or our co-counsel. We will continue to try to determine whether Defendant Lisa McPherson Trust will also respond by that date.

If you have questions or need any additional information, please do not hesitate to call.

Very truly yours,

WILSON CAMPILONGO LLP
